
KEYBOARD ROLLIN' GAME

a music game for one player

↓ MIDDLE C

Note: Print this page on the backside of the game board.

Keyboard Rollin' Game

Materials:

- A "Line Notes" die and a "Space Notes" die (available from thepracticeshoppe.com). Optional: "Accidentals" die.
- A game piece.

Instructions:

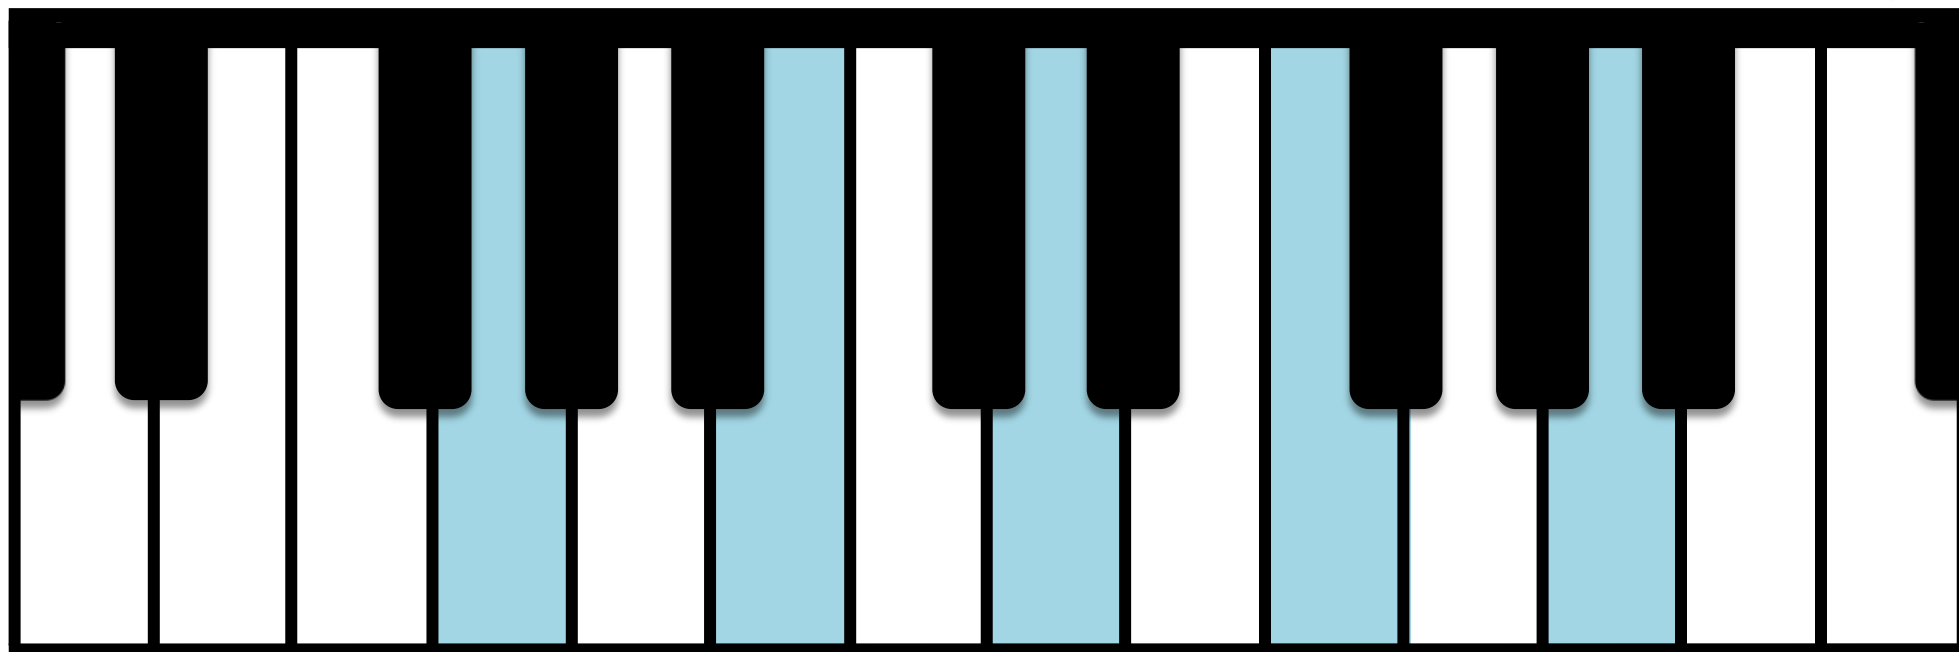

- Decide whether to practice treble or bass clef notes, and lay out the appropriate gameboard. Decide whether to use only the line note or space note die, or to alternate between the two.
- Roll the die. Identify the note by placing the game piece on the corresponding piano key. (Notice that the line notes are shaded on the keyboard.)

KEYBOARD ROLLIN' GAME

a music game for one player

MIDDLE C

Note: Print this page on the backside of the game board.

Keyboard Rollin' Game

Materials:

- A "Line Notes" die and a "Space Notes" die (available from thepracticeshoppe.com). Optional: "Accidentals" die.
- A game piece.

Instructions:

- Decide whether to practice treble or bass clef notes, and lay out the appropriate gameboard. Decide whether to use only the line note or space note die, or to alternate between the two.
- Roll the die. Identify the note by placing the game piece on the corresponding piano key. (Notice that the line notes are shaded on the keyboard.)